Sandy Llanes-Chavez

Dear Sandy,

I do not want to miss the opportunity to express how proud I am of all your accomplishments despite the different challenges that you have faced. It brings me joy and warms my heart that you are pursuing a career in one of the passions that we both share, music. Since you were little, you never stopped to amaze me with your creativity and talents. You have exceeded all expectations, not only you are graduating from High School with honors and special recognitions, but with determination and perseverance, you accomplished your goal of becoming a drum major for Clear Creek High School Marching Band. Along with completing your senior year strong, you hold a part-time job, and you found the time to participate in the opportunity of being part of Virtuosi of Houston, gaining experiences and expanding your musical knowledge. No words can express enough how proud I am to be your dad, and may the Lord grant me the opportunity to walk along your side as you keep sowing what you continue reaping, celebrating your successes, and supporting and helping you during challenging times.

Congratulations, Chula!

Keep following your dream and pursuing your goals!

May God bless you always!

I will always love you,

Your Dad, Ricardo Llanes.

Trampus Marek
